About Oyat

Oyat is a law firm with a pioneering spirit, a breeding ground for talent bringing together professionals recognised for their excellence in M&A, private equity, public business law, environmental law, energy law, digital and IP, commercial law, real estate law and litigation.

The firm now boasts an experienced, multidisciplinary team of around twenty lawyers. These professionals are used to working as part of a team in project mode, and practice their profession not only for, but also and above all alongside, their clients. They see their role as that of a partner and strategic advisor, and their experience enables them to anticipate their clients' problems and help them define the best strategy for innovative or defensive issues, which require listening, understanding, tenacity, rigour and a fighting spirit.
